The Honorable Charles L. Brieant United States District Judge Chambers United States Court House 300 Quarropas Street White Plains, New York 10601

Re: Zherka v. Amicone, No. 07 Civ. 9618 (CLB)

Dear Judge Brieant,

We represent The Journal News, a division of Gannett Satellite Information Network, Inc., nonparty witness in the above-referenced matter. On February 15 we moved on behalf of our client to quash a subpoena issued by plaintiff Selim Zherka, which is currently scheduled for a hearing on Friday, March 14. I write to bring to your attention the fact that, on March 3, plaintiff filed a response conceding that service of the subpoena was improper. (A copy of the response is enclosed.) In light of plaintiff's concession, we assume that an appearance by the parties on March 14 is no longer required. If this assumption is incorrect, we would appreciate it if your chambers could let us know.

Respectfully,

Mark A. Fowler

PLAINTIFF'S MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN RESPONSE TO MOTION TO QUASH SUBPOENAS BY GANNETT SATELLITE INFORMATION NETWORK, INC.

Preliminary Statement

This memorandum is submitted in response to Gannett Satellite Information

Network, Inc.'s motion to quash various subpoenas as referenced in their moving papers.

POINT

SINCE SERVICE OF THE SUBPOENAS WAS DEFECTIVE, THE MOTION TO QUASH IS MOOT

On the basis of the declaration of Roberta Maurer, movants urge (Memorandum at p. "2" and "3" that service of the at-issue subpoenas was ineffective. Since we are not in a position to challenge Maurer's representations of fact, we concede the point. As such, we agree with movants' acknowledgement that "the Court need not reach the First Amendment issues implicated by the subpoenas" (Memorandum at "5".

Conclusion

The motion to quash is academic and should be dismissed.
